

used. I can give you examples of that where the papers have taken pictures that the law enforcement bodies would like to get ahold of to use to prosecute people and we don't feel that that's our purpose to these law enforcement people. We're trying to report the news to the public. That's what we mean by other information.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion of the bill? Now, Senator Syas, your light is still on. Do you wish to be recognized? Thank you. Senator Stahmer, are you all through? Thank you. All right. Question is now, shall L.B. 380 as amended be advanced from general file to E&R initial. All those in favor will vote aye. All those opposed will vote no. You are voting on the advancement of L.B. 380 from general file to E&R initial. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, no nays, 20 not voting.

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have a communication from the Executive Office (read).

PRESIDENT: We will move to the general file consideration then of L.B. 177, Senator Waldron's bill. Senator Proud, would you come forward, please? 177.

CLERK: Legislative Bill 177. Introduced by Senator Waldron of the 42nd district. (bill read) O.K. The committee, Mr. President, had previously indefinitely postponed the bill. The bill was then placed on general file notwithstanding that action. There are now Carpenter amendments pending.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: --railroad companies in the amended form. The amendment has been adopted; has the amendment been adopted or not?

CLERK: No.

SENATOR CARPENTER: The amendment was arrived at between the railroads and the unions. They're both in agreement. It's taken after the Missouri law as I recall and I move for the adoption of this amendment.

SPEAKER: You've--is there any further discussion on the amendment? All those in favor of adopting the amendment, say aye. Those opposed no. The amendment is adopted, Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: What the bill now does, it permits, for example, with certain limitation, agreeable by both, cleaning up the right-of-way in order to protect the wealth and the health of those people who have the responsibility to move the trains through the State. I move the bill be advanced from general file to E&R for initial.

SPEAKER: You heard the motion. Is there any further discussion? The motion is to advance the bill as amended. All those in favor vote aye. Those opposed vote no. This requires 25 votes. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays, 25, 22 not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: The bill as amended is advanced. L.B. 230. Clerk will read.

CLERK: Well, Mr. President, Senator Hasebroock wants to--

SPEAKER: Oh, Senator Hasebroock.
